MDL 2804

Case No. 17-md-2804

Hon. Dan Aaron Polster

MOTION FOR LEAVE OF HOSPITAL PLAINTIFFS TO FILE SEPARATE RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS'
BRIEFING ON VIABILITY OF PUBLIC NUISANCE CLAIMS NATIONWIDE

In its order of December 31, 2018, this Court directed the parties to submit briefing addressing the viability of state nuisance claims. Doc. No. 1218 at 2. Defendants' briefing on this topic raised issues about the interpretation and application of public nuisance laws, in response to which the above-captioned Hospital Plaintiffs have an interest in stating their legal positions, particularly on the issues of the special injury suffered by the hospitals, the fact that the nuisance laws apply to opioids, and the proximate cause of Defendants' charged conduct to the financial injuries suffered by the Hospitals. The Hospital Plaintiffs will keep the text of their Response Brief to 12 pages, along with an Appendix listing "special"/"pecuniary" injury authority among the 50 states. The Hospital Plaintiffs further note that the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee's initial briefing on nuisance (Doc. No. 1406) was only 23 pages, where 40 were allowed. Doc. No. 1218 at 2.

WHEREFORE, we request the Court permit the Hospital Plaintiffs to file the referenced Response Brief on behalf of the captioned plaintiffs.

Dated: March 28, 2019

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Don Barrett
